

Annual Keystone Active Zone Training

Tuesday, May 23, 2006
8:45 am– 12:30 pm

Registration is FREE! Register online by May 12, 2006

WWW.KEYSTONEACTIVEZONE.COM

Hosted at Intermediate Units throughout the state
(unless otherwise noted on registration page)

Continuing Education: .35 CEUs will be provided for Certified Park & Recreation Professional's (CPRP's), Certified Therapeutic Recreation Specialist (CTRS'), and Activity Director Certified (ADC's)

Training Objectives:

- (1) Learn about the purpose and benefits of participating in the Keystone Active Zones Campaign to promote close to home parks and trails.
- (2) Gather creative ideas for implementing the Keystone Active Zone Campaign from local community partners representing health, education, and recreation.
- (3) Receive the Keystone Active Zone 2006-07 Mini-grant Application to support local implementation (15 will be awarded)!

Target Audience: Professionals representing- Community and Public Health, Recreation, Health and Physical Education, Educators, and Youth Leaders.

Partners: PANA, PA Dept of Health, PA Dept of Conservation and Natural Resources, and PA Recreation and Park Society.

PANA is supported by the PA Department of Health through a grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) with programs delivered by Penn State University. For more information: <http://www.panaonline.org>

Highmark Blue Shield is recognized as the Official PANA Broadcast Sponsor